

Central-Carroll Marching Band Sweeps Competition

(October 11, 2008 - Valdosta, GA) The Central-Carroll High School Marching Pride earned high honors at the Battle on the Border Band Competition at Lowndes County High School in Valdosta, Georgia. Central-Carroll earned Superior Ratings from every judge and the “Class AAAA” Championships in every possible caption, including Drum Major, Percussion, Flag Line, and overall Band. With the highest score in the prelims portion of the competition, Central-Carroll came back that evening with another outstanding performance in the Finals Competition, earning a final score of 96.2 and earning the High Music Award, High Visual Award, High Overall Effect Award, and the overall Grand Championship of the contest. This win marks the 20th Grand Championship the Marching Pride has earned in the last 10 years.

