Band Program Updates

Neil Ruby

Mr. Ruby introduced and welcomed Jacob Weinstein. He is the new director for bands at Temple High School.

-Washington Trip Updates

Mr. Ruby stated that the plans have been tentatively finalized for the trip. He is still waiting on the schedule for the Capital and White House tour. There will be a trip only meeting scheduled as soon as the itinerary is finalized. Students will start choosing rooms on 11/20/19. Mr. Ruby reported that there is one student spot that has come available. It will be filled on a first come first serve basis. Unfortunately, there is was not enough interest in the friends and family package therefore this will not be an option for this trip. Parents are welcome to come to watch the parade, but they will not be able to get tickets to the events that the band is participating in during this trip.

-Upcoming Parades

Mr. Ruby went over the parade itinerary for the holiday season. He stated that for the second year in a row Central Carroll band will be leading Santa into the parade.

-Christmas Concert (December 12)

Mr. Ruby spoke about the upcoming Christmas concert that will be held at the PAC. The concert and symphonic bands will be performing. He stated that it will be a great concert and encouraged everyone to attend.

-Student Accolades

Mr. Ruby recognized several band students for their outstanding accomplishments outside of the band program.

-Symphonic Band Reinhardt Performance

Mr. Ruby stated that the performance was stunning. He stated that this was huge opportunity and that the symphonic band did a great job and he is very proud. He stated that there were many compliments on how well the band played and how professional the students presented at the event.

-New Football Region

Mr. Ruby spoke about how our new football region will impact travel over the next two years. The positive aspect is that we will be introduced to several new teams and bands that we have not played in the past. He also stated that he has posted the game schedule on the charms calendar.

-County EX and SBS Recap

Mr. Ruby stated that numbers are one thing, but he is very proud of the event outcomes despite the weather impact to SBS. He thanked all parents for volunteering and all the local businesses that support the band. He stated that a list will be posted on the website.

-Marching Season Recap

Mr. Ruby stated that the band had another successful marching season.

-What's Next?

Mr. Ruby spoke about upcoming events. We will host a pre-LGPE event at the PAC this year. We will also host LGPE again this year at the PAC. He recapped the bands Mission and asked the parents to be vocal about what this band is doing in the community.

Mr. Ruby stated that the band will participate in the Christmas Assistance Program again this year. Leadership has selected two families that reside in our community to support this year. There is a total of eight kids between the two families. Students can participate by taking an index card with the child's age and gift wish, purchase the gift, and return it unwrapped to the band room.

Questions?

Turner/Ruby

1. Is there a designated place for families to sit at the parade in Atlanta to watch their student?

Mr. Ruby stated that the handout included the web-site that has the route listed along with a map.

He also stated that the Carrollton Christmas route has changed. The band will march from the Train Depot on Bradley Street to the Library.

Show Video from Warner Robins for those who want to stay and watch 😊
